Longy's Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall and recital rooms are housed in two historic buildings located at the intersection of Concord and Garden Streets, near the Sheraton Commander Hotel. It is a short walk (approximately 10 minutes) from the Harvard Square T stop where connections can be made to the Red Line subway or by bus to most locations in the greater Boston area. Bus routes 72, 74, 77, and 78 pass near the school. The entrance to Longy's Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall and Wolfensohn Recital Room is at 27 Garden Street. Recital Room N1 at the Rey-Waldstein Building is located just a half block away at 33 Garden Street. The Edward M. Pickman Concert Hall and the 27 Garden Street building are accessible to the disabled.

PARKING

Meter parking (free after 6:00pm) is available along Garden Street and Massachusetts Avenue, and around the Cambridge Common. Discounted parking is available at the University Place Garage across from the Charles Hotel (corner of University and Bennett Streets), approximately a 15 minute walk from Longy. Rates: before 5pm – $1 off the first two hours; after 5:00pm – $6 flat rate. To receive the Longy discount, have your parking ticket validated by Longy's receptionist during the day or security guard in the evening.
